

SOCIETY NEWS

VERA GWYNNE TELEPHONE 4500.

Hours 8:30 to 12 A. M.; 1 to 6 P. M.

4366 is the new number of society desk phone, this addition having been made necessary on account of the great amount of telephoning in the editorial department.

Thursday's Calendar:
The Grayson club has outing to Springs.

Ault and Miss Hull, Hostesses:
Saturday's day has been honored prettier affair than the evening at which Mrs. A. A. Ault and tenth Hull were hostesses, a evening at the home of Mrs. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Magnus South Denver Avenue.

The significance of the day was seen in the decorations of Irish shamrocks and other emblems, with green and white carnations. The contest prize, a bouquet of sweet peas, was awarded to Marie Summers. The dining at which the serving was done, started with a cluster of green carnations and emblems. The company of guests of the affair were Mrs. Harry Klinecker Sprague, the Misses and Mabel Summers, Marjorie of Annie Magnussen, and the club members: Madeline Albert, G. M. Linton and J. C. and the Misses Mabel Charlotte Garton, Bennett Edred Eulsey and Julianne.

ment of Double Wedding Ceremony:

rement is made of the marriage of Dorothy Crain and Mr. Wyman Shriver, and Miss Wallace and Mr. Harry Fallow a double ceremony which occurred, Saturday, February 7, at Independence, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Shriver will reside at 400, while Mr. and Mrs. Fallow planning to make their home in California. Mrs. Shriver youngest daughter of Mr. and H. Crain, of South Prairie

Gathering in Dr. McPike Home:

A pleasant family gathering in the home of Dr. Mary S. McPike, on 40th Baltimore Avenue, includes as guests the doctor's mother, Mrs. Lucy Young of Nowata, her brother, Dr.

N SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

uffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so took three more bottles of it and got so I could work all the time. I pe every woman who suffers like I did try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound." —Mrs. P. W. LANSING, No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day and day out or drag out a sickly, half-tired existence, missing three-fourths the joy of living, when they can find it in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound?

Mrs. G. W. Penn of Kansas City, has arrived for a visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph S. Harvey on North Denver Ave.

Rev. George Crocker Gibbs came over from Oklahoma to conduct the midweek Lenten services at Trinity Episcopal church last evening.

CHURCH SOCIETIES.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Kramer, with Mrs. Shepler as hostess.

The Mission Study class of the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity church will meet in the gold room Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Allen Perrine entertained a company of a dozen friends informally, yesterday afternoon at her home on South Boston Avenue in farewell to Mr. Perrine's mother, Mrs. A. J. Perrine, who is leaving today for a few months' sojourn in Seattle, Wash. The hours from two until five were pleasantly spent and lunch was served.

Miss Adelaide Condon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Condon, of North Denver Avenue, will entertain her young friends with a party, Saturday afternoon from three until seven-thirty.

Dr. Francis J. Phane, C. S. D., of Oakland, California, will deliver a free lecture on Christian Science at the Grand Opera House, Thursday night, March 19, at 8:15 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Adv.

World Wants Get Results

75c

75c

Box

This Week Only

Hand Burnished Initial Stationery

Friedmar JEWELRY CO.

75c

Box

75c

Box

Quiet at Cape Hatteras.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—A former Hostess of the number Novak reported his arrival at Cape Hatteras in the navy department to-day, said conditions were quiet in that part of the lately disturbed Hatteras region. He attributed the present lack of activity to the British government's complaint against the rebel leader Theodore, by the three General Charles Zanoni.

The ladies of the United States Patriotic Order have just held a Homecoming meeting at the Grand Hotel on Friday evening.

Everyone is invited to attend the 10th Annual Festival, Saturday at the Grand Opera House, Thursday evening, March 20, at 8 o'clock. Admission free.

The score card of the afternoon contest, declared Mrs. A. G. Marks winner of the fitter which was a set of beautiful luncheon napkins. The refreshment plates were served at the card tables.

"The Best Plays of the Season."
"The best plays of the season" in which Mrs. R. E. Mayo reviewed the drama and opera which have been favorably received by the press and enjoyed by America's theater-going folk this year, interested the members of Chapter No. 1, E. O. of the meeting with Mrs. Charles L. Woods yesterday afternoon.

In the judgment after sending meeting which followed the program, Mrs. Woods served tea added in these questions by Mrs. C. E. Strong.

Mrs. J. E. Both, of Fairfield, Iowa, Mrs. George C. Nichols of Marion, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Both have concluded a brief, but very pleasant visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Both, on South Baltimore Avenue.

Mew-Cow-Peh.

Miss Hattie Mae Purdy made her debut at the Mew-Cow-Peh club, the occasion of a pretty St. Patrick's party Tuesday evening. Shamrocks, the flag of Ireland and the refreshments showed the day's colors. Miss Ferne Purdy was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Sill and Mrs. Harriet Ely left last evening for Nevada, to be present at the funeral service of Mr. W. J. Scovell, today.

Mrs. Emma K. Moody, of Timerville, Pa., returned yesterday from Independence, Kan., where she was the guest of her son, Mr. Nelson K. Moody and family for several weeks, to spend some time in the home of her son, Mr. Robert Moody, on South Carson Avenue, again, before returning to the east.

Rev. M. L. Luther, of Oklahoma, and Dr. E. M. Sweet, of Tulsa, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Fred S. Clinton, in Clinton Ingleside, over Tuesday night and yesterday.

Miss Florence Potter entertained her club, the Beta, with a pleasant evening party Monday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Potter, on South Main Street.

Mrs. M. Hoffner and Mrs. J. Cook were hostesses at a pleasant party Tuesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. L. D. Hudson, of Dewey, who was a guest for several days of Mrs. Fred Jones. It was an afternoon of contests with Mrs. George Minnsinger winning the prize of a plant and Mrs. Hudson the guest honored, and Mrs. Simms also successful contestants, carnation bouquets. Two courses were served.

Club Women to Worship in Body.

The club women of the city will go in a body to worship at the tabernacle Friday evening. The women will assemble at the public library at 7:15 before going to the special service. Among the clubs which will be represented are the Tuesday Book club, the Twentieth Century, Jane Adams, Chautauqua, Ruskin Art, Yeechka, Crown Seal and Woman's club.

Mrs. R. W. Kellough of South Cheyenne Ave., is able to be out again after a few days' confinement to the house with an attack of tonsilitis.

Mrs. G. W. Penn of Kansas City, has arrived for a visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph S. Harvey on North Denver Ave.

Rev. George Crocker Gibbs came over from Oklahoma to conduct the midweek Lenten services at Trinity Episcopal church last evening.

CHURCH SOCIETIES.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Kramer, with Mrs. Shepler as hostess.

The Mission Study class of the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity church will meet in the gold room Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Allen Perrine entertained a company of a dozen friends informally, yesterday afternoon at her home on South Boston Avenue in farewell to Mr. Perrine's mother, Mrs. A. J. Perrine, who is leaving today for a few months' sojourn in Seattle, Wash. The hours from two until five were pleasantly spent and lunch was served.

Miss Adelaide Condon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Condon, of North Denver Avenue, will entertain her young friends with a party, Saturday afternoon from three until seven-thirty.

Dr. Francis J. Phane, C. S. D., of Oakland, California, will deliver a free lecture on Christian Science at the Grand Opera House, Thursday night, March 19, at 8:15 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Adv.

World Wants Get Results

75c

Box

75c

</div